

Wesleyan Rebounder's Club raises support, offers benefits

Players and supporters mingle at the Rebounders' Club.

Jacqueline Wittman
jrwittman@mail.txwes.edu

The new Texas Wesleyan Rebounder's Club is reaching for new heights under the guidance of Terry D. Waldrop, men's head basketball coach. Together with supportive members, the club will grow in support for the Texas Wesleyan basketball program.

Members of the Rebounder's Club are able to join a team depending the amount of their donation. Membership consists of the practice ($100), home ($250), travel ($500) or championship ($1,000) team.

Once a member, benefits are available with the Texas Wesleyan Basketball team. The perks of joining include tickets, T-shirts, a seat on the bench, locker room access and an autographed team picture.

The club initially met Oct. 15 in the Louella Baker Martin Pavilion with refreshments provided by Eules Main Street BBQ. Athletic Director Kevin Millikan and Dean of Students Cary Poole were among the participants.

The Rebounders Club will hold luncheons on periodic Thursdays from noon to 12:45 p.m. at Dorá's Residential Restaurant. Lunches will feature scouting reports from the Texas Wesleyan Basketball coaches and a question and answer session. Meeting dates are Nov. 19, Jan. 14, Feb. 18 and March 11. For additional information, contact Waldrop at twaldrop@txwes.edu or Brennan Shingleton, assistant head coach, at bshingleton@txwes.edu.

Laura Rosser | Rambler Staff

Lady Rams raise funds in pink-out

Joakim Soederbaum
jsoederbaum@mail.txwes.edu

In honor of Breast Cancer Awareness and Research Month, the lady rams volleyball team decided to do what they could to help raising funds.

When hosting Southwestern Assemblies of God University Oct. 15, the team wore pink jerseys and auctioned off T-shirt jerseys during the game.

According to Head Coach Christy Clawson, the team felt a responsibility to help increasing awareness of breast cancer.

"I think all the girls, including myself, know someone who has had breast cancer or is a current fighter or survivor," she said. "That they did this says a lot about their character."

The players wore pink T-shirts, cupcakes, pink lemonade and candy in the SUB throughout the day.

Assistant Coach Amanda Martin worked hard to coordinate the day.

"We would never have been able to pull it off without her," Clawson said. "She did a great job putting it all together."

All together, the girls managed to raise close to $400 in support of breast cancer research. Clawson said that she hopes to make the pink out a reoccurring event with the volleyball team.

"I think it was quite successful for being a first time," she said. "It is tough for the girls to put in all the hard work that they did during season. We learned a lot this time, and hopefully we can plan ahead and make it even better next year."

The pink lady rams beat Southwestern Assemblies of God, 3-2 (24-26, 25-18, 20-25, 25-21, 16-14).

Laura Rosser | Rambler Staff

The pink Lady Rams.

Rambler's Guide to the Game: Table Tennis

Jacqueline Wittman
jrwittman@mail.txwes.edu

Have you ever wondered what's going on in the game or why that crazy fan is yelling at the referee? Worry no more.

We have the insider's guide to table tennis in order for you to learn the rules and lingo of the game.

Now you will sound like a pro when you cheer and yell at the table tennis match. Get out there, join in the fun, and cheer on your Rams!

For the complete guide, visit www.therambler.org/sports.

The Match

- A match is won after the best of 5 or 7 games.
- If the ball hits the net, goes over, and still bounces on the opponent's half of the table, the point continues.
- Each player is allowed to request one time-out period of up to 1 minute during a match by making a T-sign with the hands.

- Each player has two serves each.
- The players change ends before the next game begins.
- It is not allowed to move the table, touch the net assembly, or put the free hand on the playing surface while the ball is in play.
- The winner is the player or pair who first scores 11 points, unless deuce. Then the first player or pair to gain a 2 point lead.

Table Tennis Lingo

"Ping pong"

The same game played for recreation and fun; table tennis is a sport.

"Rally"

The period during which the ball is in play.

"Deuce"

When both players or pairs (doubles) score 10 points.

7-7 Flag Football Standings

Name	Wins	Loses	TP Scored	TP Against	Byes
Pickles	6	0	153	18	0
BOHICA	3	3	35	21	0
TapOut	3	3	67	97	0
1 L's	3	3	68	103	0
Twisters	1	5	7	47	0
Pink Dragons	1	5	21	48	0

Fantasy Football Pig Skin Pick'Em Leaderboard

Name	Pts.
Jeremy Newton	58
Michael Greer	54
Rachel Loftin	54
Phillip Blockinger	54
Fabiola Duron	54
Cara Lumpkin	53
Jason Simpson	52
Oscar Lazarki	52
June Johnson	51
Terry Waldrop	51
Sandy Gonzalez	50
Ryan Amador	49
Trey Bomar	49
Michael Chaney	48
Barbara Kirby	48
Daniel Bravo	48
Kyle Morgan	48
Keith Wright	47
Randy Pistorious	47
Erik Hall	46
Ken Flowers	46
Julie Handley	38
Justin Payne	30
Thomas Vasquez	30
Carolyn Ikens	22

Upcoming Sports

	Game	Time/Place
Saturday	Table Tennis	Sid W. Rich.
	Volleyball vs. Bacone College	11 a.m. Muskogee
	Men's Soccer vs. University of the Southwest	1 p.m. Hobbs
	Volleyball vs. John Brown University	3 p.m. Siloam Springs
	Women's Soccer vs. University of the Southwest	3 p.m. Hobbs
Monday	Golf at Tangle Ridge Shootout	Tangle Ridge GC Grand Praire
Tuesday	Golf at Tangle Ridge Shootout	Tangle Ridge GC Grand Praire

The Weekly Sports Quote

"I asked a ref if he could give me a technical foul for thinking bad things about him. He said, of course not. I said, well, I think you stink. And he gave me a technical. You can't trust 'em."

Jim Valvano

Former College-Basketball Coach

Wesleyan Week-in-Sports

- The Lady Rams Volleyball team (11-13, 5-4 RRAC) took a thrilling five-game win (24-26, 25-18, 20-25, 25-21, 16-14) against Southwestern Assemblies of God University on Oct. 15. The Lady Rams brought the score to 2-2 before winning the fifth game 16-14.
- The Lady Rams Soccer team (10-5, 3-2 RRAC) lost 3-0 on the road against their rivals Northwood University in a rematch of last year's Red River Athletic Conference championship game on Oct. 15. Hosting Southwestern Adventist University Oct. 17, the Lady Rams put themselves in the record books, winning 20-0. The previous record of goals in a single game (14) was held by the 1993 squad. Alejandra Barrera led the Lady Rams with five goals and two assists. She was only one goal shy of tying the school record for goals in a single game.
- The Rams Soccer team (9-6, 1-4 RRAC) suffered a 4-1 loss on the road to local rivals Northwood University on Oct. 15. Adis Druzanovic scored the Rams lone goal. The Rams beat Southwestern Adventist University 16-0 on Oct. 17. Kevin Rauch led the Rams with three goals and two assists.
- The seventh-ranked Rams Golf team finished second at the NAIA Preview Invitational in Silvis, Ill., Oct. 16. After scoring 292 in their first round, the Rams were holding a one-stroke lead going in to the second round. After day two, they had repeated their second-place finish at the site of last year's national championship. Senior Drew Koonce led the Rams, finishing tied for fifth individually with a total score of 146, four over par. Also Armando Villarreal finished top-10, tying for 10th with a total score of 150.